Wisara specialises in corporate and commercial practice. With nearly a decade of experience advising clients across a wide spectrum of corporate and transactional matters, she brings deep expertise in mergers and acquisitions (M&A), capital markets, financial regulatory compliance, and general corporate law, serving both domestic and international clients in a wide range of industries.

Wisara's extensive capital markets work includes advising on initial public offerings (IPOs), private placements, and other securities offerings, where she supports clients through the full lifecycle of listing from due diligence and regulatory submissions to prospectus preparation and post-listing compliance. Her M&A and transactional practice covers both public and private transactions, including share and asset acquisitions, joint ventures, corporate reorganisations, and group restructurings.

Wisara holds a Master of Laws (LL.M.) in International Business Law with merit from King's College London, and a Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) in International Law from Chulalongkorn University.

She is fluent in both Thai and English, with a strong international perspective that enhances her ability to serve clients in cross-border contexts.
